Dear Sir

As I am an entire stranger to you I beg leave to ask you to excuse me in addressing you But under the circumstances you will not think it out of place.

You have a man in your employ that I am holding a note of his which he has made, promise one after another but never paid any of it The note is 30 Dollar, Dated 1/26, 1886 Interest 9.84 Printed, 1.41 to the 4/25 to 10/19, 1891
